March	Necessary Sins?
Theme	What is a "necessary sin?" In our world today, there are some very obvious sins that everyone would agree are always wrong. Murder is always wrong. Stealing is always wrong. But there are some other sins that we tend to believe are easier to justify. Some people would say these are more acceptable, or more respectable, or some might even say "more necessary." We allow certain habits to help us deal with life, but sometimes the bad habits we adopt can become part of our identity. It's time to separate ourselves from these 'necessary' habits and recognize them for what they really are: sins. The sins that we tend to dismiss that we will be discussing this month are Lying, Gossip, and Anger.

				Mar 6	Lying	The Lord detests lying lips, but he delights in those who tell the truth.	Proverbs 12:22
					How we lie? We lie to others, we lie to God, we lie to ourselves.
					Why do we lie? We believe it makes life easier. We justify that it protects the feelings of others. We lie to avoid conflict, or to make ourselves look better. Ultimately, the further we are away from God's truth, the more we lie.
