Registration Process:

Camp CHAOS is for GCS students, boys and girls grade 6-12, interested in playing basketball during the 2017-2018 school year. The purpose of the camp is to work on fundamental skills, plays, and build team unity. There are a variety of activities planned included guest speakers and coaches.

Students interested in registering for camp must register and pay the $75 fee on the GCS Order Lunches site by Friday, August 4th. (Camp rate is not prorated should a student need to miss a day of camp.) Parents must complete the form below before students may participate. In addition, students need the two athletic forms from our website and an updated/current physical. The forms should be brought in the first day of camp in order to participate.
